Background – Texas Public Policy Foundation

The Texas Public Policy Foundation (TPPF) is a conservative 501c3 think tank based in Austin, Texas. The Foundation's mission is to promote and defend liberty, personal responsibility, and free enterprise in Texas and the nation by educating and affecting policymakers and the Texas public policy debate with academically sound research and outreach.

Projects of the TPPF include Right on Crime, which is focused on criminal justice reform and Fueling Freedom, which seeks to "explain the forgotten moral case for fossil fuels." Contributors to the organization include energy companies Chevron and ExxonMobil.

Notable - Newly Senate-confirmed (confirmed alongside Bill Wehrum) Chair of the White House Council on Environmental Quality, Kathleen Harnett-White- is a fellow of TPPF.

Notable Attendees – Texas Public Policy Foundation

Brooke Rollins, President and CEO, Texas Public Policy Foundation

Brooke Rollins served as the deputy general counsel, ethics advisor and policy director under then-Governor Rick Perry. After her tenure with Perry, Brooke assumed the presidency of the Texas Public Policy Foundation.
